Popular Vote at the March meeting
Den. Enobi Purple 'Splash'

Owned by Lesley & Garrie Bromley

This orchid is a real eye opener when in full flower, below are the two main orchids ( Den. bigibbum x phalaenopsis ) used in the breeding of this plant. Not all Enobi Purple orchids have splash petals and it does not always come through when it is cloned. So if you want a splash petal you need to buy a piece of known splash petal plant or one in flower.

Our monthly raffles are continuing as are our Lucky Door Prize and Lucky Exhibitor Prize. Please make sure that when you arrive you get a Lucky Door ticket from the front bench and if you are exhibiting orchids please also collect a Lucky Exhibitor's ticket as these are drawn out before our raffle and there are some very interesting plants amongst these prizes.

Stanhopea Peter Grinnell
(Stan. oculata x graveolens)

A well grown and well flowered Stanhopea.

Phal. pulcherrima var alba

Phalaenopsis pulcherrima formally known as Doritis pulcherrima come from the south east area of Asia, including north east India, Myanmar, Thailand, Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam, Malaysia, Sumatra and Borneo. They are hardy little plants that grow either on rocks as lithophytes or in the organic leaf litter as terrestrials. They grow at low elevations so like some warmth and in shady areas of the forest. They like a potting medium that drains well and enjoy good air movement. They have very erect flower spikes that can often have up to 10 flowers open at once.

The colour can vary from white to dark purple and there are many perloric forms in all colours. They all like a regular feed of any good fertilizer and the only problem that we have with them is mealy bugs which can be easily controlled.

Phal. pulcherrima perloric

Dendrobium Topaz Dream is an Australian Hybrid which is starting to flower now and we will see on the show benches for the next month or two. It comprises of almost 94% Den. bigibbum and 6% Den. canaliculatum. At this time of the year when we have few Australian orchids on the bench this dendrobium makes a wonderful display. By going back one generation, you have Den. Fantasy Land which is one of the parents of Topaz Dream crossed onto Den. bigibbum. The only difference between these two orchids is the percentage of Den. bigibbum, which is approx. 8%, but what a difference.

Den. Fantasy Land
